FINAL ORDER

At all times relevant to this proceeding, Petitioner received Medicaid benefits on a fee-for-service basis. On April 25, 2023, Petitioner requested a Fair Hearing based on Respondent's applied behavior analysis services.

Pursuant to notice mailed to the Petitioner's Authorized Representative's address of record on May 24, 2023, the undersigned Hearing Officer convened a telephonic hearing on June 14, 2023, at 9:00 a.m.. Petitioner's Authorized Representative was not in attendance. After a fifteen-minute grace period, the undersigned took a roll call on the record of the persons in attendance and went off the record at 9:16 a.m..

Rule 59G-1.100(9)(b)(5)(b), Florida Administrative Code, authorizes a Hearing Officer to deny or dismiss a request for a Fair Hearing if the Recipient fails to appear at the scheduled Fair Hearing without good cause.

On June 14, 2023, the undersigned issued an Order to Show Cause (“Order”) why the instant case should not be dismissed for failure to appear at the scheduled Fair Hearing. The Order notified the Petitioner’s Authorized Representative that failure to show good cause on or before June 26, 2023, would result in dismissal of the case.

Rule 59G-1.00(2)(n) defines Good Cause as “[a]n incident or occurrence which is beyond the control of the movant and which prevents compliance.” Examples of good cause include a disabling accident, illness, or declared emergency; or other similar circumstances beyond the Recipient’s control. See Fla. Admin. Rule 59G-1.100(14)(b). The record shows that the Order Consolidating & Scheduling Fair Hearing by Telephone and Prehearing Instructions (“Scheduling Order”), was issued May 24, 2023. Petitioner’s explanation for missing the hearing is that “. . . I waited all day for your phone call on June 14 to execute the Fair Hearing, but unfortunately I never received that phone call.” On page 2 of the Scheduling Order, the following instruction is given: “The parties must call the Hearing Officer at the number listed below on the date and at time of the hearing.” The Scheduling Order unambiguously provides that the parties are to call into the hearing. As such, Petitioner has failed to show good cause for ■■■ failure to appear at the hearing.

Based on the foregoing,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED THAT:

Petitioner’s Fair Hearing request is hereby deemed abandoned, and this matter is now closed.

DONE AND ORDERED this 6th day of July, 2023 in Tallahassee, Leon County, Florida.
