Interpreter Fernando #702190 with Voyance provided Spanish translation service for Petitioner.

Prior to the Fair Hearing, Respondent sent to the Office of Fair Hearings and Petitioner a 148-page evidence packet. The evidence packet appears in the Office of Fair Hearings’ case management system as “MFH packet [Petitioner’s name].pdf.” Absent an objection from Petitioner, the undersigned hereby admitted the evidence packet into evidence as Respondent’s Composite Exhibit 1.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner is an enrolled member of CMS. See Respondent’s Composite Exhibit 1 at page
2. CMS is a managed care organization contracted by the Agency to provide services to eligible Medicaid recipients in the state of Florida.

2. As of the date of the Fair Hearing, Petitioner is [REDACTED]. Id. at 41. Petitioner has the following diagnoses: [REDACTED]. Id. at 20. Petitioner’s prescriptions include [REDACTED]. Id. at 27. Petitioner receives speech therapy and applied behavior analysis services. Id. at 41. Petitioner attends school. Id.

3. On November 13, 2023, Petitioner’s physician, [REDACTED] (“[REDACTED]”), wrote a prescription for home health - personal care services 12 hours per day, 5 days per week, for 180 days for assistance with personal care and ADL’s. Id. at 20 - 21. [REDACTED] also provided a letter of medical necessity, dated [REDACTED]. Id. at 39.

4. [REDACTED] provided a work schedule indicating that [REDACTED] works Monday through Saturday from 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Id. at 14. Petitioner provided a school schedule as follows: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and Wednesday from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Id. at 15.

5. On December 1, 2023, Sunshine State Health Plan, Inc. (“Sunshine”) issued a Notice of Adverse Benefit Determination (“NABD”) terminating Petitioner’s the home health aide – personal care services after 30 days. Id. at 4-8. The NABD explained the basis of the determination as follows, in pertinent part:

After our review, this service has been: PARTIALLY DENIED as of December 1, 2023.

We made our decision because:
(Check all boxes that apply)

We determined that the requested services are not medically necessary because the services do not meet the reason(s) checked below: (See Rule 59G-1.010).

- Must be needed to protect your child's life, prevent significant illness or disability to your child, or to alleviate your child's severe pain.
- Must be individualized, specific, consistent with symptoms or diagnosis of illness or injury and not be in excess of your child's needs.
- Must meet accepted medical standards and not be experimental or investigational.
- Must be able to be the level of service that can be safely furnished, and for which no equally effective and more conservative or less costly treatment is available statewide.
- Must be furnished in a manner not primarily intended for convenience of the recipient, caretaker, or provider.

(The convenience factor is not applied to the determination of the medically necessary level of private duty nursing (PDN) for children under the age of 21.)

The requested service is not a covered benefit.

Other authority:

Sunshine Health Policy on Review for Personal Care Services Requests, FL.UM.25.00 and Florida Medicaid Personal Care Services Coverage Policy Agency for Health Care Administration, November 2016. These services have also been reviewed under EPSDT (Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnostic and Treatment).

Rationale: The request to approve a home health aide for your child for 60 hour per week is partially denied. This is a trained health care worker to help a person in the home. The clinical notes sent with this request do not support the medical need for a home health aide. Your child appears to need adult supervision, childcare, and babysitting services. Adult supervision does not require a home health aide. All young children need adult supervision and help with activities of daily living (basic self-care). Please note that previous approvals for home health aide services were approved without medical need review. As a courtesy to allow you to make childcare arrangements. We are approving for 30 days of services only. Services beyond 30 day is denied for lack of medical need.

Id. at 4 - 5.

6. However, on January 3, 2024, Petitioner requested a plan appeal. Id. at 74. On January 22, 2024, Sunshine issued a Notice of Plan Appeal Resolution (“NPAR”) upholding the determination. Id. at 74 - 75. The NPAR states the following, in pertinent part:

The reason for our decision was the previous decision regarding home health aide services for your child is upheld. Your child appears to need adult supervision/childcare/babysitting services. Adult supervision does not require a home health aide. All young children need adult supervision and assistance with activities of daily living. Criteria: SUNSHINE POLICY AND PROCEDURE Review for Personal Care Services Requests FL.UM.25; Personal Care Services Coverage Policy, Agency for Health Care Administration, November 2016. This decision was made with regards to EPSDT. This decision was made by a Medical Director who is Board Certified Physician in Pediatric Medicine.

7. On February 27, 2024, [REDACTED] requested a Fair Hearing on behalf of Petitioner regarding the denial of home health – personal care services. On March 8, 2024, the undersigned Hearing Officer issued a notice to all parties of record, scheduling the Fair Hearing to be convened by telephone on April 4, 2024, at 1:00 p.m. EST.

8. Dr. Metinko testified that Petitioner received the services at issue during Sunshine’s integration with Children’s Medical Services and that this is the first time that the services were reviewed for medical necessity since December 2023. CMS approved the continuation of services for 30 days.

9. Dr. Metinko provided credible and persuasive testimony that Petitioner’s request was denied due to a lack of sufficient documentation as well as ambiguity concerning the parents’ work schedules. With regard to Petitioner’s functional abilities, Petitioner [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

10. With regard to the parents' work schedules, Dr. Metinko established that no work schedule was originally provided for Petitioner's [REDACTED]. The original work schedule for Petitioner's [REDACTED] was not signed by an employer, and it was not clear why 12 hours per day were needed since Petitioner attends school until 3:00 p.m. and Petitioner's [REDACTED] only works 6 hours per day from 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Updated works schedules were provided from Petitioner's parents; however, the employers' information could not be verified.

11. [REDACTED] asserted that Petitioner needs supervision 24 hours per day for 7 days per week. [REDACTED] testified that [REDACTED] works 12 hours per day. Further, [REDACTED] asserted that Petitioner is [REDACTED].

12. In making its medical necessity determination, Sunshine relied upon the Sunshine Health Policy on Review for Personal Care Services, FL.UM.25.00. Id. at 120 - 130. The policy states as follows, in pertinent part:

DEFINITIONS:

Personal Care Services are services that assist a member with ADLs or IADLs. These services can be provided to members up to the age of 21. The personal care services must be prescribed by a treating physician, provided by a home health aide or independent personal care provider, and supervised by a registered nurse if provided through a home health agency, or supervised by the parent or legal guardian if provided by a non-home health agency, or supervised by the member, if the services are provided by a non-home health agency and the member is a legal adult between the ages of 18 up to 21 with no legal guardian.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

13. The Agency's Office of Fair Hearings has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding and the parties pursuant to section 409.285(2), Florida Statutes (2022). This order is the final administrative decision of AHCA under section 409.285(2)(a).

14. This hearing was held as a de novo proceeding pursuant to Florida Administrative Code Rule (“Fla. Admin. Code R.”) 59G-1.100(17)(b).

15. Because Respondent terminated previously approved services, Fla. Admin. Code R. 59G-1.100(17)(g) assigns the burden of proof to Respondent. The standard of proof in an administrative hearing is a preponderance of the evidence. The preponderance of the evidence standard requires proof by “the greater weight of the evidence” (Black’s Law Dictionary at 1201, 7th Ed.).

16. The provision of home health – personal care services is governed by the Florida Medicaid Home Health Visit Services Coverage Policy (November 2016) (“Home Health Policy”), which is incorporated by reference in Fla. Admin. Code R. 59G-4.130. The Home Health Policy provides the following, in pertinent part:

1.1.2 Statewide Medicaid Managed Care Plans

Florida Medicaid managed care plans must comply with the coverage requirements outlined in this policy, unless otherwise specified in the AHCA contract with the Florida Medicaid managed care plan. The provision of services to recipients enrolled in a Florida Medicaid managed care plan must not be subject to more stringent coverage limits than specified in Florida Medicaid policies.

17. States must provide Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnostic, and Treatment ("EPSDT") services to Medicaid-eligible children under age 21 when requested under the Medicaid state plan. See 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(a)(43); 42 U.S.C. § 1396d(a)(4). According to 42 U.S.C. § 1396d(r)(5),

EPSDT services mean, in relevant part, the following items and services:

Such other necessary health care, diagnostic services, treatment, and other measures described in subsection (a) of this section to correct or ameliorate defects and physical and mental illness and conditions discovered by the screen services, whether or not such services are covered under the state plan.

18. Petitioner is under the age of 21 years, and therefore EPSDT applies to the services at issue. However, a state may place medical necessity limitations on EPSDT services. See 42 C.F.R. §§ 440.230(a), (b), (d). Section 409.905(2), Florida Statutes, limits EPSDT services with a medical necessity standard:

The [Agency] shall pay for early and periodic screening and diagnosis of a recipient under age 21 to ascertain physical and mental problems and conditions and all services determined by the agency to be medically necessary for the treatment, correction, or amelioration of these problems and conditions, including personal care, private duty nursing, durable medical equipment, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, respiratory therapy, and immunizations.

19. The Florida Medicaid Definitions Policy (“Definitions Policy”) (August 2017), incorporated by reference in Fla. Admin. Code R. 59G-1.010, states as follows, in pertinent part:

2.2 Activities of Daily Living (ADLs)

ADLs include:

- Bathing
- Dressing
- Eating (oral feedings and fluid intake)
- Maintaining continence (examples include taking care of a catheter or colostomy bag or changing a disposable incontinence product when the recipient is unable to control bowel or bladder functions)
- Toileting
- Transferring

2.18 Caregiver

Person(s) attending to the needs of another person, who is physically or mentally impaired, injured, incapacitated, or a child unable to care for him or herself.

2.64 Instrumental Activities of Daily Living (IADLs)

IADLs include:

- Grocery shopping
- Laundry
- Light housework
- Meal preparation
- Medication management
- Money management
- Personal hygiene
- Transportation
- Using the telephone to take care of essential tasks (examples include paying bills and setting up medical appointments)

2.83 Medically Necessary or Medical Necessity

The medical or allied care, goods, or services furnished or ordered must meet the following conditions:

- Be necessary to protect life, to prevent significant illness or significant disability, or to alleviate pain
- Be individualized, specific, and consistent with symptoms or confirmed diagnosis of the illness or injury under treatment, and not in excess of the patient's needs
- Be consistent with generally accepted professional medical standards as determined by the Medicaid program, and not experimental or investigational
- Be reflective of the level of service that can be safely furnished, and for which no equally effective and more conservative or less costly treatment is available statewide
- Be furnished in a manner not primarily intended for the convenience of the recipient, the recipient's caretaker, or the provider

The fact that a provider has prescribed, recommended or approved medical or allied care, goods, or services does not, in itself, make such care, goods or services medically necessary or a medical necessity or a covered service.

Definitions Policy at pages 1 - 7.

19. In this case, Respondent terminated Petitioner's services on the basis of medical necessity. Specifically, Respondent determined that the home health - personal care services at issue are not medically necessary. See supra ¶ 5 - 6.

20. Here, Respondent has the burden of proof. The Home Health Policy is clear that Florida Medicaid reimburses for home health aide visits rendered to a recipient whose parent or legal guardian is not able to provide ADL or IADL care, and to supplement care provided by parents and legal guardians. See supra ¶ 16. Further, parents and legal guardians must participate in providing care to the fullest extent possible. See supra ¶ 16. Medicaid does not reimburse for babysitting or supervision. See supra ¶ 16. Babysitting is defined as custodial care, daycare, afterschool care, supervision, or similar childcare unrelated to the services that are documented to be medically necessary for the recipient. See supra ¶ 16.

21. In the instant case, the record does not show that the 60 hours per week of home health – personal care services are warranted. As Petitioner is under the age of twenty-one (21), Florida Medicaid would cover the requested if they were medically necessary. A component of medical necessity is that the services must not be “in excess of the patient’s needs.” See supra ¶ 18. Here, Dr. Metinko provided credible and persuasive testimony that Petitioner does not have functional issues that warrant the requested services. See supra ¶ 9. Moreover, as Dr. Metinko testified, home health services – personal care services are intended to supplement the care provided by the parents. In this case, a parent work schedule for Petitioner’s [REDACTED] was not initially provided nor was documentation submitted to demonstrate that the parents have a medical limitation preventing them from caring for Petitioner and the extent of any such limitations. [REDACTED]’s work schedules, and the updated work schedule provided by Petitioner’s [REDACTED], could not be verified by Dr. Metinko, and it was unclear whether and to what extent the parents are unable to care for Petitioner. Therefore, the record does not reflect that the requested services are not in excess of Petitioner’s needs at this time.

22. Petitioner’s provider recommended home health – personal care services in this case based on a need for supervision. See supra ¶ 3. However, the fact that a provider has prescribed, recommended or approved medical or allied care, goods, or services does not, in itself, make such care, goods or services medically necessary or a medical necessity or a covered service. See supra ¶ 18.

23. Upon consideration of the testimony, evidence, and applicable policies, the undersigned finds that Respondent proved by a preponderance of the evidence that the home health – personal care services at issue are in excess of Petitioner’s needs. As such, the record does not reflect that the requested services meet medical necessity criteria. Looking at all the evidence relevant to the particular needs of this Petitioner, Respondent has demonstrated that the home health services are not necessary to correct or ameliorate a defect or a physical and mental illness or condition. Accordingly, Respondent proved by a preponderance of the evidence that Respondent’s termination of Petitioner’s home health – personal care services was correct.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

Respondent’s termination of Petitioner’s home health - personal care services is AFFIRMED. Petitioner’s appeal based on Respondent’s termination of home health – personal care services is hereby DENIED.

DONE and ORDERED this 19th day of August 2024, in Tallahassee, Leon County, Florida.
